Helping Hands

Helping hands is a website that shows the user the location of nearby PHCs, blood banks and plasma centres. The website also gives you access to view the profiles of our reference doctors who happen to the best of covid case handlers. The user/patient can book an online appointment with any of the three reference doctors by filling up a form that is provided. Once the form is submitted, for patient's reference, an acknowledgement mail is sent to the mail ID that he/she mentions in the form. For the hospital's reference, the details of every patient who fills the form is stored into database.
